March/April 2022

President's Message

Hello Quilters,

“Pillow Talk” was a challenge planned for our 2021 quilt show which has been postponed due to COVID. When the next quilt show is planned a new challenge will be issued to keep us all inspired. Therefore, we are pleased that the Centre has chosen to display our “Pillow Talk” creations. Please take some time and go and see it – the show runs from February 12 to March 12, 2022.

Cheryl Arkison (our February speaker) has inspired me to take time to play with blocks and fabrics. Her upcoming workshop in April will be taking three different traditional blocks and change them around.

February 19th is VP Day, where we get together on ZOOM and create our own version of the quilt. I am looking forward to this day seeing others via ZOOM and stitching our own version of the quilt.

How are your UFO's coming along? Please remember to let me know once they have been shown in the Show and Share at our meeting.

Upcoming sew days:

February 19, 9:30 – 2:00 VP Day

March 19, 9:00 – 12:00 Sit and sew

April 9, 9:00 – 12:00 Sit and sew

Stay safe and healthy

Linda

Program

Thursday, March 3, 2022 at 7:00pm Kate Colleran

Kate will join us from her home in Colorado to share her lecture Modern Traditional. She will discuss various quilt styles using her quilt designs to show a mix of modern and traditional. She designs quilts in bright colours with simple shapes designed for the beginner to intermediate quilter.

Thursday, April 7, 2022 at 7:00pm Dawn Piasta

Dawn is a well known Canadian quilter from Daphin, Manitoba. She is a passionate motivational speaker who has taught at Quilt Canada and has recently created Virtual Quilt Retreats. She will share her journey as an Art Quilter and how she develops a design from conception to completion.
